- ii) The WBC will decide whether the reported matter should be dealt with under this Policy. If the Committee considers that the matter should be dealt with under a different procedure, they will advise the person making the protected disclosure as to the appropriate steps, which should be taken.
- iii) The WBC will normally consider the information received and decide whether there is a prima facie case for investigation. If yes, it may be:
 - Investigated internally by the committee or a specially constituted internal team of investigators with or without external help; or
 - Referred to the External Auditors; or
 - Be a subject of an independent enquiry by an external specialized agencies.
- iv) If the initial enquiry indicates that investigation is not required, issue shall be closed. WBC shall document the initial enquiry and explain the decision as fully as possible to the Whistle Blower

(b) Responsibilities

i) Investigators

Investigators are the persons authorised by the Company to conduct a process towards fact-finding and analysis. They derive their authority and access rights from the Whistle Blower Committee when acting within the course and scope of their investigation. They have the following responsibilities:

- To assist the WBC in ensuring that proper investigative channels are utilized according to appropriate expertise and jurisdiction.
- To conduct the enquiry in a fair, independent and unbiased manner.
- To be objective, thorough, ethical in behaviour and observance of legal and professional standards.

- To ensure complete fact finding and maintain strict confidentiality.
- Decide on the outcome of the investigation and recommend an appropriate course of action to the Whistle Blower Committee.

ii) Whistleblowers

- To make disclosure that is factual rather than speculative and contains as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature, extent and urgency of preliminary investigative procedures.
- To provide sufficient corroborating evidence and to justify the commencement of an investigation.
- To disclose their identity while making a Protected Disclosure.

iii) Investigation Subjects

- To cooperate with the investigators to the extent that their cooperation will not compromise self-incrimination protections under state or central law.
- Not to interfere with the investigation, and to adhere to admonitions from investigators in this regard. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached or intimidated.

7. Confidentiality & Protection

The Company strictly prohibits any discrimination, victimisation or harassment against any person who makes protected disclosure based on the person's reasonable belief that misconduct occurred. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like victimisation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure.

To the extent possible within the limitations of the law and requirements of investigation, identity of the person making protected disclosure will be kept confidential by the company and shall not be disclosed unless such disclosure is necessary for proper investigation.

Similarly, confidentiality of identity of the 'Subject' will be maintained within the same limitations.

8. Decision

If an investigation leads the Whistle Blower Committee to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, it shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as they may deem fit.

9. Reporting

(a) Reporting and Recording Breaches and Frauds

It is the responsibility of the Company's Business Heads and Functional Directors to report all breaches of the Code and all frauds to the Whistle Blower Committee.
